

VISITING ATTIRE

Visitor Attire

It is recommended that visitors dress conservatively and with the following guidelines in mind, to enhance a family atmosphere. Appropriate attire includes undergarments; a dress or blouse/shirt with skirt/pants or shorts; and shoes or sandals. Inappropriate attire will be reason to deny a visit. Any alteration to clothing once a visitor is inside the visiting area will be grounds for terminating the visit. Visitors shall remain fully clothed at all times in the visiting room. Buttons, snaps, and zippers shall remain fastened. Undergarments shall be worn beneath translucent clothing, under all circumstances.

Prohibited Attire:

Pursuant to Department Operations Manual (D.O.M.), Section 54020.20 and California Code of Regulations (CCR), Title 15, Section 3174, the following attire is prohibited for visitors over 36" tall:

- Clothing which, in any combination of shades or types of material/fabric, resembles California State-issued inmate clothing (e.g., blue denim or chambray shirts and blue denim pants, reception-center attire).
- Law enforcement, military-type, or camouflage-patterned articles of clothing, including rain gear, when not legitimately worn by an individual on active duty or in an official capacity. (Military must present valid Military ID with photo.)
- Head coverings, readily removable hair pieces, or gloves, with the exception of clear see-through rain gear for inclement weather.
- Clothing that exposes the breast/chest area, genital area, or buttocks. (i.e., Clothing that is low-cut, Strapless or 'spaghetti' strap tops, revealing, etc.).
- Dresses, skirts, pants and shorts exposing more than two inches above the knee, including slits in the garment when standing.
- Clothing that is sheer, transparent or excessively tight. (i.e., Tank tops; shell tops; sling-shot shirts; halter tops; Lycra [spandex], including exercise and cycling shorts; sensual; body contouring or provocative).
- Clothing by design, manner worn, or due to the absence of, allows the anatomical detail of body parts or midriff to be clearly viewed.
- Attire or accessories displaying obscene/offensive language, drawings, or objects. (i.e., Clothing displaying gang-affiliated language or symbols, etc.).
- Brassieres with metal underwires or any other detectable metal are not permitted. (To expedite processing times, sports bras are the accepted item of clothing.)
- Shower shoes and bedroom slippers.
- Any other clothing, garment, or accessory that when compared to the expressly specified standards would warrant disapproval.

Pursuant to the Richard J. Donovan Correctional Facility (RJDCF), D.O.M. Supplement, the following attire guidelines are specific to the RJDCF:

- No hospital scrubs.
- No sweatpants or sweatshirts of any color.
- Garments designed as a jacket or coat must be accompanied by an approved shirt and/or blouse.
- Due to the escape potential that it creates, the excessive layering of clothing is not allowed.
